The Undertaker of Holly, Orleans county, N. Y., stated to me after he had opened the Casket containing the remains of my mother, after being transported from here, that the Undertaker at Paw Paw, Mich., had prepared them in the most skillful and approved manner; that they were in a perfect state of preservation, and everything in as good condition as though the work had just been performed. That of all the numerous bodies received in charge by him, he never saw one where every requisite had been more faithfully attended to. Mrs. F. C. THOMAS.

That popular New York journal so well known to our sportsmen, Forest and Stream, has been enlarged to 28 pages, weekly. It is devoted exclusively to angling, shooting, and yachting and kindred recreations, and is the finest journal of the kind in existence.

Local Department.

Tremendous rain on Tuesday last.

Will Hincley is back from Dakota.

Special village election next Monday.

Miss Etta Hopping has returned home.

Mrs. Geo. Alexander is visiting in town.

Mrs. Jay Cumings is visiting friends in Indiana.

The Odd Fellows are putting a new roof over their hall.

Mrs. W. G. Kinney has sold out her hair trade to Mrs. Terrill.

Charley Stevens crowds the "big boys" sharp with his new bicycle.

A new consignment of iron has been received for the narrow gauge.

Ben Heckert has received his appointment to duty in the pension department.

W. J. & R. Sellick have a new story to tell this week. They always keep abreast of the times.

Read the auction notice of Mr. G. B.
Chapin. He has some very desirable property to sell.

Sam. Munger and his family have returned to Paw Paw to stay. They found Escanaba too unhealthy.

Jay Cumings has a bran new advertisement in this paper. He don't intend to be left in the rear.

Judge Hilton returned from his eastern trip, on Tuesday last. He looks bronzed, hale and hearty.

George Lucas, furniture dealer, has a new advertisement in this paper. Read it. All live business men advertise.

We call attention to the new advertisement of the "New York Drug Store," P. G. Forsyth, proprietor. Philo means business.

Geo. Longwell is fixing up the Dyckman House in good shape. When he gets through it will be, in every respect, fit for a hotel.

Wint. Reynolds has returned home. He will settle the milliner question now, for the correspondent of the Decatur Republican.

On Monday last, Officer Hedge of Geneva, conveyed a young lad, son of Geo. Brydle, of Gobles, to the State Public School at Coldwater.

Robt. Dunnington and Lew Saulsbury threshed a hundred bushels of wheat in forty minutes, one day last week, for William Hoodemaker. Next.

Jim Bullard is going to Aberdeen, with the families of Mr. Williams and Mr. Duncombe, in a few days.

H. H. McLain, of Porter, threshed 650 bushels of wheat from 26 acres. One five acre piece yielded 40 bushels per acre.

Miss Jessie Chapin, of Jackson, is spending a few days at McCabe's. Also Misses Maud and Mabel Root, of Kalamazoo.

C. P. Rawson, Esq., has returned from New York. While there he purchased of E.
Townsend, Esq., a very fine stock ram.

Hank McCabe stepped through a hole in the side-walk and put his knee out of joint.
He limps around with a cane, and he hasn't any accident policy.

Some as fine specimens of Hale's Early peach as we ever saw, were left on our table last Monday. They were from the orchard of Mosier Bros. in Porter.

Eden Engle, with a head-light to shine their eyes, and a shot-gun to coax them down, makes the coons that visit his cornfields, these dark nights, look sick indeed.

A matched game of base ball is arranged to be played between the Paw Paw and Lawton nines, at the Fair Grounds on the 29th inst.
The boys can play a game worth seeing.

"Gov. Tilden" died at Marshall, Mich., on the morning of the 12th inst. A post mortem revealed the fact that he died of heart disease. Twa'n't "Sa'my," 'twas a horse.

Frank Burton, before Esq. Galligan, on Tuesday last, plead guilty to the larceny of a $10 bill. His honor pleasantly remarked, $10 fine and $6 costs, or 15 days in the cooler.

There is talk of a matched game of base ball between the 4th nines of Paw Paw and Lawton, of which, Masters Marion Rowland and Oliver Lawton are the respective captains.

Wib. Warner, Secretary of the Commonwealth Accident Association, of Grand Rapids, was in town on Friday last, adjusting the claim of R. O. Beebe, for falling through his barn floor.

The charming young actress, Miss Pearl Eytinge, in Robert M. Yost's new and beautiful drama, Brentwood, under the management of Alex. R. Webb, will appear at Paw Paw, October 11th, 1882.

C. G. Nash provided for his family by $9,450 life insurance. Every man should take the same kind of forethought for his family, so that in case of his death, they may not be left without means of support.

We have just purchased a lot of new job type and other material for the NORTHERNER office, and are better prepared than ever before, to do good work for our customers.
Bring on your jobs, satisfaction guaranteed.

C. W. Young and A. Van Anken have been appointed as a committee to let the dining hall and booth privileges at the next county fair. A. Van Anken is committee on dancing hall. He probably expects to get his dancing free.

Henry Ewers, the white barber, who was charged with running away with Rol. Lor-kins' money, returned to town on Monday last. He was arrested on a charge of embezzlement, and his examination set for Tuesday next.

Mrs. Isa Wilson Porter will give a public seance on Saturday evening next, at Long-well's Opera House. Admission 25 cents.
She will give private sittings during the day at Mrs. Town's, from 8 until half past 11, and from 1 until 5.

Voters should remember that they must all re-register before the November election.
There is no exception to this rule. The old registration is wholly valueless, and any voter who does not get registered anew, will be deprived of his vote.

Charles Flanders returned from Dakota on Thursday of last week. He reports crops there as excellent, and tells of oats that yielded 93 bushels to the acre. He is located about 20 miles from Aberdeen and six miles from Columbia, the county seat of Brown county. He intends to return in October.

The Directors of our county fair offer $250 as premiums to the best drilled posts of the Grand Army. First premium $125, second $75, third $50. Now let all the posts in the county prepare themselves and compete for these prizes. It will, no doubt, be one of the most attractive features of the fair.

HEAD QUARTERS BROTHERHOOD FORT, G. A. R., DEPT. OF MICH.
Paw Paw, Aug. 14th.

SPECIAL ORDER.—The Commander of this Post takes this method of urging the members of this Post to be present at its next regular meeting, to be held at its Post-room on the 24th inst., as business of special interest and importance will be acted upon.

By command of BENJ. F. HECKERT, Post Com'r.
A. W. CUMINGS, Adjutant.

Corporal Ben. Holt has been off duty for a few days, and under the surgeons care.

Josiah Kingsbury, our milk merchant, has 12 good cows, a good well and a wind mill, and is unable to supply his customers with milk, and has to buy of neighboring farmers.

Mr. Amos Hall reports seeing a snake five inches through and fifteen feet long, near the slaughter house in Gremps' woods. His snake was a rapid traveler, and, when in motion, his body moved up and down in waves, instead of horizontally. Other parties report seeing it at other times.

Harvey U. Benson, of Geneva, a young man 23 years old, on Wednesday last, through Judge Hilton, his Attorney, brought suit in our circuit court, against Lavina Black, for breach of promise to marry. He lays the damage to his lacerated affections at the modest sum of $5000. Poor Lavina! What renders it all the more harrowing, is that Lavina married another fellow.

Mr. K. W. Noyes has recently received $2,000 from the Knights of Honor, on account of the death of his brother, Moore R.
The delay in the settlement of the claim arose from the fact, that when Moore died, the lodge was in suspension, and the matter was made a kind of test case, taken to the Grand Lodge, where payment was recommended, and thence to the Supreme Lodge. Mr. Noyes will pay all costs that have been incurred in prosecuting the claim, pay for the monument over Moore's grave, and retain possession of the remainder for the benefit of his deceased brother's infant child. The statement of the Courier, that the delay in the settlement of this loss was occasioned by fault of the officers of the lodge, is not borne out by the facts as given us by Mr. Noyes, and as he is a member of the lodge, we presume he is correct.

The thunder storm on Tuesday last was one of remarkable severity. Lightning struck in this village, near the residence of Mrs. Hayes, but did no damage. A barn on the premises of James V. Blackledge in Arlington was struck and consumed with all its contents, consisting of about 600 bushels of wheat, a quantity of hay etc. Mr. Blackledge, on the first of this month had taken out a policy of $1300 in the Van Buren County Farmers Mutual, $260 on his barn and $1040 on his personal property. The Courier reports the following additional casualties, a cow killed for Norman Rice on the Lawton road; a blooded bull killed for Jack Veely, of Pine Grove; five cows killed in Hamilton on the farm of Chas. Johnson, two owned by him, two by Thos. Hoadley and one by Mr.
Verman; a valuable mare and colt killed in Keeler, belonging to Frank Tuttle; eleven sheep killed for Erastus Osborne, of Hamilton; the telegraph office in Decatur badly injured, instruments destroyed and wires burned off; a house struck on the farm of Daniel Lyle in Silver Creek township, Cass County.

The excursion party, to which allusion was made in the last issue of the NORTHERNER, left town a few days ago, and is reported as having been a very pleasant affair. The sermon by Elder Tonge was replete with rich thoughts and beautiful allusions. Prof.
Durby, of Chicago, led the glee club, while Billy, the Kid, sang second. The oration by Prof. Horace was very long, and very dry, and, notwithstanding repeated applications of hops to his larynx, he appeared on his return with a strip of flannel around his throat. Messrs. Emery & Barker, the gentlemanly proprietors of the Hotel de Mosier, were delighted at the unusual influx of guests, and made every effort to have things pleasant and to have their visitors feel at home.
The menu was simply elegant, and the Olympian games indulged in, at the expense of the proprietors, were marvelous feats of strength and skill. The entire party resorted to Hussey Lake, where a camp meeting immersion took place, which evidently resulted disastrously to Ocky Wilde, as his early application the next morning for five grains of quinia sulphas, bore witness. His face was ashy pale, with the exception of his nose, which reflected the color of his Auburn mustache. The bill of fare of the memorable occasion has been carefully preserved, and may be seen by visiting the Hotel de Mosier, where all will be received with careful and polite attention. The occasion will not soon be forgotten by any one who participated in the "Hard Crowd Picnic." The following names were inscribed on the hotel register: Horace Greeley, of Oshkosh; Oscar Wilde, of Omaha; Billy, the Kid, of Arizona; Potat-bug Bill, of St. Ives; John Jacob Astor, of Five Points; Harkus Barkus, of Pentwater; Floyd de Schmidt, of Alexandria; Professor Durby, of Chicago; Elder Tonge, of East Indies; W. W. Coryphens, of Cobtown. After a piece of music by the glee club, entitled "Peter among the Grapes after the Cows," accompanied by Elder Tonge and Billy, the Kid, upon bells, the excursionists returned home.
